

Name _____

Date _____

Matching

- | | |
|-------------|------------------------|
| a. buck | l. disbudding |
| b. doe | m. capra hircus |
| c. flushing | n. mohair |
| d. kid | o. flock |
| e. kidding | p. mastitis |
| f. wether | q. bloat |
| g. browser | r. foot rot |
| h. cabrito | s. floppy kid syndrome |
| i. cashmere | t. enterotoxaemia |
| j. chevon | u. tetanus |
| k. chevre | |

- _____ 1. disease caused by bacteria that enters the body through open wounds
- _____ 2. the birthing process in goats
- _____ 3. the inflammation of an animal's udder which can be infectious or noninfectious
- _____ 4. a castrated male goat
- _____ 5. inflammation of an animal's foot due to walking in wet ground and receiving an infection in the animal's hoof
- _____ 6. a plant eater that would rather eat weeds, shrubs, and trees
- _____ 7. fiber taken from Angora goats
- _____ 8. describes a severe distention of the abdomen by gas
- _____ 9. goats of either sex up to one year of age
- _____ 10. disease in goats caused by a toxin producing bacteria
- _____ 11. removal of the horns of goats around five days of age
- _____ 12. a female goat of any age
- _____ 13. describes the meat from older goats
- _____ 14. a group of goats

GOAT– MATCHING WORKSHEET

- _____ 15. the red meat of a young goat normally around 40 pounds
- _____ 16. scientific name for goats
- _____ 17. goat cheese
- _____ 18. a male goat of any age
- _____ 19. a condition that occurs in kids three to ten days after birth.
- _____ 20. the fiber taken from the goats soft, fine, winter undercoat
- _____ 21. feeding a doe extra feed two weeks prior to breeding