

Answer Key

Across

- 5 injection into the abdominal area
- 7 bacterial infection in animals that result in diarrhea
- 9 use of a drug by a veterinarian in a way that is not meant to be used for
- 10 inflammation of a animal's udder which can be infectious of noninfectious
- 12 rod shaped bacteria that cause food poisoning, and high fever, and diarrhea
- 14 beneath the skin
- 16 virus which has not been changed and is still capable of infecting
- 21 live bacteria or yeasts given to animals as dietary supplements
- 22 time period when no drugs can be given to an animal preceding its slaughtered
- 23 substance that a body makes to fight off certain diseases
- 24 ability to resist a disease due to already having the disease or having received a vaccine

Down

- 1 transfer of a animal disease to humans
- 2 injection given directly into the vein
- 3 metabolic disease in which a animal may loss its appetite
- 4 bacteria usually found in the lower intestine of animals
- 6 injection directly into the muscle
- 8 secure distention of the abdomen by gas
- 11 disease in sheep and goats that shuts down the central nervous system
- 13 illness that causes the lungs to swell
- 15 lack of hemoglobin, iron, or red blood cells in a animals body
- 17 bacterium or mold that is used to kill germs inside animals
- 18 mixing of chemical agents in poultry birds water or feed
- 19 examination of a dead body to discover the cause of death
- 20 inflammation of a animal's foot