

Name _____

Date _____

Goat Facts

- The life span of a goat is twelve years.
- Worldwide, more people eat the meat and drink the milk of goats than any other single animal.
- Dairy goats have a strong herd instinct and prefer the companionship of at least one other goat.
- Goat milk has a more easily digestible fat and protein content than cow milk.
- Goats are usually dehorned when they are very young.

Bloat

- Term used to describe a secure distention of the abdomen by gas.

Browser

- A plant eater that would rather eat weeds, shrubs, and trees.

Buck

- A male goat of any age.

Cabrito

- The red meat of a young goat normally around forty pounds.

Cashmere

- The fiber taken from the goats soft, fine, winter undercoat.

Chevon

- The term used to describe meat from older goats.

Chevre

- The term for goat cheese.

Capra Hircus

- Scientific name for goats.

Disbudding

- Removal of the horns of goats around five days of age.

Doe

- A female goat of any age.

Enterotoxaemia

- Disease in goats caused by a toxin producing bacteria.
- Also called over eating disease.

Flushing

- Feeding a doe extra feed two weeks prior to breeding.

Kid

- Goats of either sex up to one year of age.

Kidding

- The birthing process in goats.

Flock

- A group of goats.

Floppy Kid Syndrome

- A condition that occurs in kids three to ten days after birth.
- Symptoms are extreme muscle weakness and reluctant to nurse.

Foot Rot

- Inflammation of an animal's hoof due to walking in wet ground and receiving an infection in the animal's hoof.

Mastitis

- The inflammation of an animal's udder which can be infectious or noninfectious.
- Decrease in milk production and swelling of the udder are symptoms of mastitis.

Mohair

- Fiber taken from Angora goats.

Tetanus

- Disease caused by bacteria that enter the body through open wounds.
- Symptoms include muscle spasms and moving stiffly.

Wether

- A castrated male goat.