

Answer Key

Across

- 2 animal feed that is made largely up of plants such as grasses and hays
- 5 largest stomach compartment of a ruminant animal
- 6 method of feeding young animals
- 7 edible seed of any grass plant such as wheat and soybeans
- 9 specific number of animals on certain area of land at a date and time
- 12 product of protein decomposition
- 14 plant family that builds up nitrogen in the soil
- 15 feeding method used to help animals gain fat
- 16 feed that is high in fiber and low in nutrients

Down

- 1 method of giving an animal medication through its mouth
- 3 animals that have more than one stomach
- 4 situation where two different species are grazing in the same area of pasture
- 8 lack of hemoglobin, iron, or red blood cells in an animal's body
- 9 crop that is usually stored in pits or enclosed areas at high moisture levels
- 10 feed high in energy
- 11 area where animals are penned up and fed to be slaughtered
- 13 small wad of regurgitated feed
- 17 plant material that has been cut and dried for the purpose of feeding it to livestock