

FORESTRY– MATCHING WORKSHEET

Name _____

Date _____

- a. annual rings
- b. blaze
- c. bucking
- d. canopy
- e. cant
- f. clear-cut
- g. conifer
- h. deadwood

- i. deciduous
- j. deforestation
- k. evergreen
- l. forestry
- m. hardwood
- n. heartwood
- o. kerf

- _____ 1. the process of marking trees that are to be cut down in a specific boundary line by paint or cutting the bark
- _____ 2. removing all trees in a forest area.
- _____ 3. the annual growth of wood in trees and other plants
- _____ 4. a tree that produces it's seeds in cone like appendages.
- _____ 5. the center wood of a tree that is usually very dense and hard
- _____ 6. the upper level of vegetation consisiting of the crowns of trees
- _____ 7. the branch of science that studies plants and maintains forests
- _____ 8. The small cut made by a saw in a piece of wood
- _____ 9. a log that has been processed for lumber by removing the bark and squared off
- _____ 10. cutting down all the trees in an area for harvest
- _____ 11. trees which shed their leaves yearly, preparing for new growth
- _____ 12. plants that keep their foilage year round and do not shed until new growth has come in
- _____ 13. cutting a felled tree into specific sized logs
- _____ 14. wood from deciduous or broad leaf trees
- _____ 15. a tree which is dead before being harvested