

Name _____ Date _____

Question 1

- You should always learn the right way to do a job.

□ _____

Question 2

- You should always yell “cover” before striking an arc.

□ _____

Question 3

- Observe all warning signs and tags.

□ _____

Question 4

- Always wear eye protection.

□ _____

Question 5

- Use the proper tool for the job.

□ _____

Question 6

- Do not operate a machine unless you have been taught to run it.

□ _____

Question 7

- Report all injuries to instructor.

□ _____

Question 8

- Do not use equipment that is damaged.

□ _____

Question 9

- Do not wear ragged or baggy clothing when working around machinery.

□ _____

Question 10

- Use a match or lighter to light an oxy-gas torch.
- _____ – Always use a flint striker.

Question 11

- The green hose can be attached to the acetylene regulator.
- _____ – The green hose is for oxygen and has right handed threads.

Question 12

- The acetylene hose is fitted with left hand threads.
- _____ – The acetylene hose is also red.

Question 13

- Ragged clothing is not flammable.
- _____ – The fringes on ragged clothing can catch fire easily.

Question 14

- Keep shop clean at all times.
- _____ – Hazards are reduced in a clean shop.

Question 15

- Horseplay is appropriate at some times in the shop.
- _____ – Horseplay is never appropriate and will cause accidents.

Question 16

- Never adjust metal while cutting.
- _____ – Adjusting metal will cause an imperfect cut.

Question 17

- Use stands under heavy objects for support.
- _____ – Stands will prevent objects from falling and crushing limbs.

Question 18

- Always set the acetylene working pressure above 15 psi.
- _____ – Acetylene becomes unstable at distribution rates above 15 psi.

Question 19

- A screwdriver can also be used as a chisel.
- _____ – Always use a tool for its proper use.

Question 20

- Follow shop rules and guidelines.
- _____ – Shop rules and guidelines are in place to protect your well being.